Gal Pals 4ever: Kristin and Jenny

Kristin: Jenny, what's your favorite thing about me?

Jenny: So difficult to pick one thing about you, but if I had to, it would be your heart. Because you're the best.

Kristin: Oh boy

Jenny: You're the nicest person. I'm about to start crying. I can't stop almost crying on this mountain. So what's your favorite thing about me?

Kristin: Not to bring it all full circle, but my favorite thing about you is that you can't stop crying on this mountain. What is your favorite thing about Brittani Nichols?

Jenny: [deep exhale] I think my favorite thing about Brittani Nichols right now is Brittani Nichols. You know what I mean?

Kristin: Solidarity, shared answer. Our favorite thing about Brittani Nichols is Brittani Nichols. So, who is your favorite character in Buffy: The Vampire Slayer and why?

Jenny: Anya. The reason that I think that she is the best is because she is so dry and she sort of is recovering demon who has been reduced to a mortal and somehow is the perfect distillation of the human experience because she is thrown into a world that makes no sense and is constantly asking the most reasonable questions about the most unreasonable circumstances, which I think is something that everybody can relate to.

Kristin: Beautiful. So beautiful

Jenny: Who is your favorite Buffy: The Vampire Slayer character and why?

Kristin: My favorite character is Spike. I think I love Spike because I have a really big soft spot for a hard exterior and a very soft interior. Which is the epitome of Spike. I love Spike the same way that I love you. Although I have to say your exterior is softening by the day. What is your favorite dinosaur and how has it affected your personal brand?

Jenny: I feel like there are two carnivores that have had a significant impact on my personal brand. One of them is the T-Rex, which you know I name check in a song and I have T-Rex merch. Also, the velociraptor or the dinoticus, which is the slightly larger cousin to the velociraptor with the gut splitting toe -- well we imagine that it is for splitting guts -- because when you think of Jurassic Park, the first thing you think of is the velociraptor and Jurassic Park has had a huge impact on the shaping of my life. In general and therefore my personal brand. Also my personal brand in 5th grade included a mullet and enough Jurassic Park shirts for each day of the week.

Kristin: Oh no! That's so cute

Jenny: So, you know, since many years ago and for many years to come.

Dear Sour

by Brittani

*Dear Sour,
How do I secret poop?*

Go on a hike. Poop under a tree. Bring a plastic bag. Pick up your poop like you are your own dog.
